

John Lisle, Executive Director BNI California Capital Region

John Lisle is the Executive Director of the BNI California Capital Region.

He thinks of himself as the Chief Servant for more than 500 businesses in chapters throughout Sacramento and the Capital Region.

John knows BNI very well indeed. He was the first president of the first chapter in our region, and a BNI member for more than 15 years. He built his web development company called Outback Solutions “from scratch” with referrals from BNI.

John’s passion is to assist business people to live a “Givers Gain” lifestyle and adopt an abundance attitude in order to grow their professional networks and business profitability.

Eva Lisle, Executive Director BNI California Capital Region

Eva Lisle is not only our Executive Director of BNI CA Capital Region, she also considers herself the Minister of Well Being both to our DNA team and the staff and clients of Outback Solutions, the web design company John and Eva started more than 22 years ago.

Eva is an ordained minister and spiritual counselor, a Crocker Art Museum docent, a mother to her two grown daughters, a writer and blogger. In 2015 she completed a blog project called “A Twelvemonth of Self Love” where she posted daily for an entire year. She can throw a party with only 20 minutes notice, loves to read, laugh, ask questions and believes “Talking and Thinking” are both action verbs! She stole her mission statement from the Hard Rock Café: “Love All. Serve All.”

Please welcome our own Givers Gain guru, Eva Lisle.
